

Our Community

Ferny Grove High is justifiably proud of our strong community involvement. The school seeks community support and parents and others may get involved through joining the Parents and Citizens Association, helping in the tuckshop or library, or becoming a volunteer tutor with our Learning Support group.